About the Woodcroft Women's Club

The Woodcroft Women's Club (WWC) was formed in 1986 to foster friendship and fun and to provide service to our local community through fundraising and volunteering. We have monthly evening meetings with guest speakers on a wide range of topics. The WWC is open to all women, not just Woodcroft residents. Our members come from many local neighborhoods.

Our members are active volunteers with many community service groups and events such as food drives, trail cleanup, donating supplies for non-profits and participating in recycling opportunities. Throughout the year the WWC holds several fundraising events to raise money for local charities.

The club has many special interest groups that meet more frequently (daytime or evening), to play games, take trips to local places, learn about gardening or read/study books, as just a few examples.

The Woodcroft Women's Club contributes to local charities with volunteer time, monetarily, and with donations in the form of food and household items. Year round, members volunteer in numerous ways at DCRC, Families Moving Forward, and cleaning the WWC's adopted portion of the American Tobacco Trail.

Each club year, the membership nominates and votes on charities to support. Some charities are regularly supported throughout the club year as Charities of the Month and during which time donations are collected.

At the end of each club year, the membership nominates and votes on additional charities and organizations which will receive our fundraising proceeds. The WWC encourages donations to local Durham/Triangle organizations, and we estimate that over the last 30+ years, the club has raised well over $150,000 for our local community.

The Woodcroft Women's Club supports selected charities throughout the club year with donations and some volunteer participation. Additionally, members offer their support and services to local community projects and activities. All members are invited to participate in some or all projects, and are encouraged to suggest other community support activities for consideration.

Year End Contributions - At the end of each club year, monies collected from fundraisers and donations are distributed among 3-4 charities selected by voting members. Whenever possible, the selected charities sponsors are invited to attend the final general meeting.

The Woodcroft Women's Club members enjoy gatherings geared toward specific interests. Each group is organized and supported by one or more Group Chairs who can provide more details about their group offerings. Members meet either on a regular or occasional basis - some in-person, some via Zoom.

The newsletter is a great resource and contains current information about each group's activities.

The email address of the Group Chair for each group is available in the Members section of this website which is limited to Members Only. If you are interested in attending one of the groups' activities before joining, please send email to and request the contact information.

"membership@woodcroftwomensclub.org"
